

WE ARE THE CHURCH TOGETHER IN THIS CITY "HOW WE DO LIFE TOGETHER"

Are you curious to know what it looks like for churches to actually worship together, pray together, converse together, walk together, break bread together, and share together? Join Olivet Baptist, St. Paul AME and St. Paul's Episcopal this April as we continue challenging the question, 'How We Do Life Together'. Topics include: It Doesn't Matter What's Been Written So Far...It's How We Fill Up the Rest of the Pages That Counts; Everything We Need Is Already In Us; The Power of Sharing Stories; Every Breath We Draw Is Hallelujah; and, Let Us Break Bread Together.

Don't miss out on the opportunity to blur racial, denominational and economic lines, or any other lines that may exist. It is important to remember that the process of doing life together takes time, there are no shortcuts.

Building relationships flourish in contexts where there is shaped worship and prayer, common meals, informal conversations, and a spirit of witnessing to our city. Come write the "How" with us!

Bishop Kevin Adams will bring the message on the opening evening at Olivet Baptist Church. His message is "It Doesn't Matter What's Been Written So Far...It's How We Fill Up the Rest of the Pages That Counts."

This Life Group will meet five Tuesdays, April 30 - May 28, 5:30 - 6:30 p.m. at Olivet Baptist Church, 751 ML King Blvd. (across from the main location). This Life Group is open to the public. If you have questions concerning this Life Group, please contact Jane Bowen at Janehamptonbowen@yahoo.com.

Consider making a personal commitment to expanding your comfort zone part of your 2019.
