

A Legacy OF EXCELLENCE

Bishop E. Anne Henning Byfield
&
Supervisor Ainsley M. Byfield

Greetings!

The Thirteenth Episcopal District with humility and grace recognizes and celebrates the visionary service of our dynamic leader, Bishop E. Anne Henning Byfield, Presiding Prelate of the 13th Episcopal District. She is the 135th elected and consecrated Bishop in our Zion. She leads the district with strength, dignity, and grace, during and after the time of a global pandemic. As Chief Pastor, Bishop Byfield has spiritually poured into both clergy and lay; and has raised the standard of excellence in ministry and service. She has challenged us to “Think Big,” and we are indeed thinking big, as we recognize and honor her leadership at the occasion of her retirement. Her Retirement Celebration, “A Legacy of Excellence Continues,” will be on Friday, April 5, 2024, 6:30 p.m. CST at the Memphis Music Room, 5770 Shelby Oaks Drive, Memphis, Tennessee.

You are invited to participate in this Celebration that will feature Bishop Henning Byfield’s contributions to the AME Church, the Ecumenical Community, the Arts, Academy, Community, and family.

You may show your support by purchasing a ticket, buying a Souvenir Journal Ad for the commemorative Souvenir Journal, or both. The cost of each ticket is $150. Souvenir Journal Ads may be from your church, business, organization, fraternal or personal congratulatory greetings.

Thank you for your vital contribution to the success of this celebration.

Join us in prayer for a grand celebration of Bishop Anne Henning Byfield and Supervisor Ainsley Mark Byfield’s tenure in the Thirteenth Episcopal District, and the African Methodist Episcopal Church. Please see the attachment for hotel information (room reservation); purchase of tickets and Souvenir Journal Ads; and sponsorship levels.
